SOLDIERS OF GLORIOUS AMERICA

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

HARVEY LOCKWOOD

Published By J.H. LOCKWOOD 231 EAST 76TH ST. New York
Soldiers Of Glorious America.

Words and Music
By HARVEY LOCKWOOD.

We bid you God-speed as forth you go To the fight for the Right against Giving so generously time and strength,
We shall not leave such men un-
We know right well you'll defend our flag,
The beloved Red, White and Live, day by day, so no act of yours Shall of you men un-worth-y

Copyright MCMXVII by J. H. Lockwood.
All Rights Reserved.
Wrong.
No "Hymn of Hate" shall mar our praise.
sung.
Think of the deeds of valiant sires.
Blue.
When-e'er the lurid battles lower,
be.
Then, when at last, the vict'ry's won,

Now, from our hearts, this pray'r we raise.
"God bless our boys, and pro-
We'll think of you at our hearth-fires
Moth-er and sister, sweet-
Re-mem-ber our men ne-ver cower!
Strike with your might in our
And home you come, your work well done,
We'll wel-come your tri-tect them all Who re-spend to their country's call?

heart and wife Will be proud of you all through life.
noble cause, For Humanity's holy laws.
umph-
ant ranks With a great na-tion's heart felt thanks.

D.S.